CITY IN BRIEF.

The State Board of Equalization will meet on the 16th of June.

The Grand Jury of Marion County will meet next Monday.

The Indianapolis National Bank will move into its new quarters to-morrow.

Margaret Allen, a patient from Brazil at the Insane Hospital, died yesterday.

Beds of flowers are being placed inside the railing surrounding the Morton monument.

Swindling peddlers are reported going from house to house selling bogus goods and wares.

H. Bamberger is announced as a candidate for School Commissioner in the Second District.

Motion for new trial in the Whitehead suit was argued yesterday in Judge Taylor's Court.

The county bonds were forwarded to New York last night. They required 14,000 signatures.

The infant son Frank Hereth, 138 Clifford avenue, fell and broke its thigh Wednesday evening.

The Wooley Electric Headlight Company has made arrangements for building a factory at this point.

Professor O. S. Fowler, the well-known phrenologist, will give a series of lectures in the city next week.

The fair and art exhibit at Fletcher Place Church has proved a decided success, and will be continued to-night.

Citizens are complaining of damage done by cows on the highways, which enter yards and destroy gardens and shrubbery.

Henry Thompson, who was wanted for the theft of books from the Public Library, has been captured by Superintendent Lang.

Officers Davis and Sheigert arrested Bert Mitchell last evening for the theft of a watch and chain and slated him for petit larceny.

The Ladies' Matinee Musical desire to publicly tender their thanks to Theodore Pfafflin & Co. for their many kindnesses the past season, more particularly for the use of the elephant Knabe, Hallett & Davis grand pianos so kindly furnished.

The County Commissioners' room is being supplied with new linoleum carpet, the first laid in that room since the Court-house was built.

Michael Delancy has been arrested for participation in the row at Garfield Park on Sunday, and warrants are out for a number of others.

The former patrons of Meridian Rink should not forget the benefit tendered to Mr. George Murray to-morrow evening. Let it be a "rouser."

The Board of Trade will not hold a grain call to-morrow, it being Decoration Day. Business houses generally will be closed in the afternoon.

The Postoffice will close at 12 o'clock to-morrow. Carriers will make a collection at 5 o'clock, and the usual delivery will be made at the hotels.

At the Seventh Presbyterian Church to-night there will be a free "chalk-talk," or illustrated lecture, given by A. H. Hutchinson, the "boy lecturer."

The house at 141 St. Mary street, occupied by Mrs. Laura Allen, and owned by J. H. Vajen, caught fire from flying sparks yesterday morning. Loss $25.
